

What's On @ the Library

December 2021/January 2022

Movie Nights are back!

We are very excited to welcome you back to movie nights at the Library! We have resumed our popular screenings in the Rotary Room, but with limited audience sizes to ensure physical distancing.

The following COVID-19 protocols will be in effect:

- Proof of full COVID-19 vaccination must be shown by all attendees
- Collection of contact information and active screening at entry
- Masks must be worn inside the library, including during the film
- No food or drinks will be permitted

In-Person Early Literacy Programs

We are happy to start the new year by offering in-person programming for babies, toddlers and pre-schoolers.

In keeping with provincial guidelines, we will be observing the following Covid-19 protocols for all early literacy programs in the Rotary Room:

- Proof of COVID-19 vaccination must be shown by all attending parents/caregivers at each session
- Collection of contact information and active screening will be conducted at entry at each session
- Masks must be worn by all participants ages 2 and up
- No food or drinks will be permitted
