

SMPL Evening Book Club

Our popular monthly book club has resumed in-person meetings! Join a group of fellow readers, for tea, treats and a lively discussion. This month, we will discuss Under this Unbroken Sky by Shandi Mitchell, an astonishing tale of family, love, betrayal, and the resiliency of the human spirit. Extra copies of the book are available to borrow.

When: Thursday, November 24th at 7 pm, registration is not required

Zoom Paint Night with Artist Moses Lunham

Join Artist Moses Lunham on Zoom to learn how to paint your own Falling Leaves Moon picture.

Register at the Library or email info@scugoglibrary.ca to receive the Zoom link for the program along with the list of art supplies you will need to obtain ahead of time.

When: Tuesday, November 15th from 6 pm to 8 pm

Presented in partnership with the Libraries of Durham and York Region. This program is presented free of charge, but participants will be responsible for supplying their own paints and canvas.

About the Artist: Moses Lunham (Anishnaabe) is a First Nations artist from the community of Kettle and Stony Point First Nation. Realizing his gift at a young age, Moses loved to create and make art. He studied graphic art and design at Fanshawe College, London, Ontario and graduated in 1990. Working in the graphic arts field for a good period of time, Moses decided to change direction with more of a focus on his culture and identity. He rediscovered his passion for painting and soon opportunities for teaching began to come his way.

North Durham Nature Presents

The Ethics of Wildlife Photography with Mark Peck

The popularity of wildlife photography has exploded in the last 20 years with the arrival of digital photography. But are we loving our plants and animals to death? Please join Mark for a look at how wildlife photography has evolved and what impact photographers may be having on their subjects and, more importantly, what photographers can do to better support conservation initiatives.

Dr. Mark Peck is the Manager of the Schad Gallery of Biodiversity at the Royal Ontario Museum (ROM) and was formerly the Curator of Ornithology there. He was a contributing author and photographer to various books including: The Atlas of the Breeding Birds of Ontario, The Extraordinary Beauty of Birds: Design, Pattern and Details, and The Birds of Nunavut.

Presented in partnership with North Durham Nature. Registration is not required and all are welcome!

Financial Literacy Month: Zoom Author Visit with Robin Taub

The Wisest Investment: Teaching Your Kids to Be Responsible, Independent and Money-Smart for Life

Most parents know that teaching their kids about money is critical to success in life, but studies show that many parents feel they lack the time, knowledge and experience to do it well. Add the seismic shift toward a cashless, digital society —accelerated in our post pandemic world — and it's easy to feel overwhelmed.

Join Robin Taub, CPA, CA, award winning, bestselling author in an informative chat to learn more about how you can support your child's understanding of financial literacy.

Please register by visiting the Information Desk or calling 905-985-7686 x101 and we'll email you the Zoom link for the event. Registration is limited.

When: Wednesday, November 23rd, 7 to 8 pm on Zoom

TAG Coffee House and Open Mic Night

Join our Teen Advisory Group for a coffee-house style Open Mic Night at the library! Bring a song, poem, short story, or something else you've written and share it with the rest of the group; or, if you would rather sit in the audience to support your friends, that is totally cool, too! There will be free snacks, warm beverages and music as well.

This is a free event for teenagers age 13-18, registration is not required.

When: Tuesday, November 29th at 7 pm

Our Annual Snowflake Sale Returns for 2022!

Visit us during regular library hours for an opportunity to browse and buy a wide variety of items, all handcrafted by local artists and artisans. Visitors can choose from an assortment of handmade items. This is a great way to browse for unique gift ideas and support your library at the same time, as we receive a portion of all sales.

When: Friday, November 25th to Wednesday, December 21st

Zoomer Tech Club

Are you looking for some guidance with your new computer, tablet or cell phone? Do you like to keep up with current tech trends or learn about new programs and apps?
