Movie Nights

The Fabelmans (2nd showing)

Thursday, March 2nd at 6:00 pm (150 min)

Growing up in post-World War II era Arizona, a young man named Sammy Fabelman discovers a shattering family secret and explores how the power of films can help him see the truth. Directed by Steven Spielberg, this semi-autobiography is based on his own childhood growing up in post-war Arizona, from age seven to eighteen.

Devotion

Thursday, March 9th at 6:00 pm (139 min)

“A pair of U.S. Navy fighter pilots risk their lives during the Korean War and become some of the Navy's most celebrated wingmen ” (imdb.com).

Tar

Thursday, March 23rd at 6:00 pm (158 min)

“Set in the international world of Western classical music, the film centers on Lydia Tár, widely considered one of the greatest living composer-conductors and the very first female director of a major German orchestra. ” (imdb.com).

Starring Cate Blanchett in the title role, Tar has been nominated for 6 Oscars, including Best Picture.

Women Talking

Thursday, March 30th at 6:30 pm (104 min)

“Do nothing. Stay and fight. Or leave. In 2010, the women of an isolated religious community grapple with reconciling a brutal reality with their faith” (imdb.com). Based on the novel by Miriam Toews and directed by Sarah Polley, Women Talking has been nominated for 2 Oscars, including Best Picture.

Movie tickets are $2 each and are available at the Circulation Desk one week in advance

A note about film ratings: The Province of Ontario no longer provides film ratings. For more information about film contents, we recommend visiting imdb.com. We also provide a printout of the imdb.com ratings and content information at the circulation desk.

North Durham Nature Presents

Bird Banding: A Research Tool for Understanding Bird Migration with Bryan Joyce

Established in 1995, the Prince Edward Point Bird Observatory is one of the most successful migration monitoring stations in Canada. Brian Joyce will take us behind the scenes of this research station situated on a National Wildlife Area near Lake Ontario. Brian will explain how birds are captured, recorded and safely released. Learn how this globally significant birding area attracts an abundance of song birds, butterflies and Saw-whet owls every year.

Brian is the Co-founder of the Prince Edward Point Bird Observatory who received his ecology degree from Carleton University.

When: Tuesday, March 28th at 7:00 pm

This program is free of charge and registration is not required. You are not required to be a member of North Durham Nature to attend this event.

Tech Talk Tuesday: Free Streaming Services

With inflation slowly pushing up the cost of some streaming service subscriptions, lots of people are trying to find more ways to watch their favourite programming for free.

Join us for an interesting seminar which will explore popular free streaming apps and websites such as Tubi, Pluto, CBC Gem, and more. Get some tips for popular library services in the Durham Region that might help trim your entertainment budget, too!

SMPL Evening Book Club

Join a group of fellow readers, for tea, treats and a lively discussion.

This month, we will discuss The Girls by Emma Cline

"Spellbinding . . . A seductive and arresting coming-of-age story hinged on Charles Manson, told in sentences at times so finely wrought they could almost be worn as jewelry . . . Cline gorgeously maps the topography of one loneliness-ravaged adolescent heart. She gives us the fictional truth of a girl chasing danger beyond her comprehension, in a Summer of Longing and Loss."—The New York Times Book Review

When: Thursday, March 23rd at 7 pm, registration is not required

TAG Coffee House and Open Mic Night

Join our Teen Advisory Group for a coffee-house style Open Mic Night at the library! Bring a song, poem, short story, or something else you've written and share it with the rest of the group; or, if you would rather sit in the audience to support your friends, that is totally cool, too! There will be free snacks, warm beverages and music as well.

This is a free event for teenagers age 13 -18, registration is not required.

When: Tuesday, March 7th at 7 pm
