Reading Buddies

Summer Reading Buddies

This summer, help your child practice their reading and continue building life-long literacy skills by pairing them with one of our teen volunteer Reading Buddies.

Each week, your child can connect in-person, in the library, with a Teen Big Buddy. Together they will practice reading out-loud, learn new words & concepts, and enjoy telling stories at their individual reading levels. We will cap off each session with a fun activity or craft as a group.

This program is for school-aged kids going into grades 2-5 in the fall and is perfect for kids who could benefit from some extra encouragement to continue reading over the summer months.

When: Mondays from 1 to 2 pm on July 8th, 15th, 22nd, and 29th or Tuesdays from 5:30-6:30 pm on July 9th, 16th, 23rd, and 30th

Registration is limited.

Online registration for Little Buddies opens on Saturday, June 22nd at www.scugoglibrary.ca

Teen Reading Buddy Volunteers Needed

If you are a teen going into grades 9, 10, 11 or 12, we have a volunteer opportunity for you to earn community service hours as a 'Big Buddy' in our Reading Buddies Program.

We will provide you with training so you feel confident in working with your Little Buddy to help them become a more confident reader. Volunteer Orientation sessions will be held: June 27th, 28th and July 2nd (volunteers can select which session works best for their schedule).

You can volunteer for Mondays and/or Tuesdays, but you must be available for all 4 weeks.

Reading Buddies will run: Mondays from 1 to 2 pm on July 8th, 15th, 22nd, and 29th
And Tuesdays from 5:30-6:30 pm on July 9th, 16th, 23rd, and 30th

July Movie Nights

One Life (1 hr 49 min)

The true story of Sir Nicholas 'Nicky' Winton, a young London broker who, in the months leading up to World War II, rescued 669 predominantly Jewish children from the Nazis. Fifty years later, he lives haunted by the fate of the children he wasn't able to bring to safety in England, until a live BBC television show, 'That's Life', surprises him by introducing him to some surviving children and he finally begins to come to terms with the guilt and grief he had carried for five decades.

Thursday, July 4 at 6:30 pm

*if you have tickets from the cancelled May 30th screening, please exchange them for this rescheduled showing

The Bank of Dave (1 hr 47 min)

This UK film is based on the real-life experiences of Dave Fishwick. It follows the story of a Burnley self-made millionaire who struggles to set up a community bank to help the town's local businesses to thrive. To do so, he must battle London's elite financial institutions and compete for the first banking licence in more than 150 years.

Thursday, July 11th at 6:30 pm

*if you have tickets from the cancelled June 13th screening, please exchange them for this rescheduled showing

The Old Oak (1 hr 53 min)

The Old Oak is the newest film by acclaimed British director and screenwriter Ken Loach, known for his fiercely humanistic portrayals of ordinary working people and communities. The Old Oak, which was nominated for the Palme d'Or at Cannes, centres around Pub landlord TJ Ballantyne, living in a previously thriving mining community in County Durham, as he struggles to hold onto his pub and keep it as the one remaining public space where people can meet in the town. Meanwhile, tensions rise when Syrian refugees are placed there, but Ballantyne strikes up a friendship with one of the refugees, Yara.

Ghostbusters: Frozen Empire (1 hr 55 min)

In Ghostbusters: Frozen Empire, the Spengler family returns to where it all started -- the iconic New York City firehouse -- to team up with the original Ghostbusters, who've developed a top-secret research lab to take busting ghosts to the next level. But when the discovery of an ancient artifact unleashes an evil force, Ghostbusters new and old must join forces to protect their home and save the world from a second Ice Age.

Thursday, July 25th at 6:30 pm

Movie tickets are $2 each and are available one week in advance
