August Movie Nights

June Again (1 hr 39 min)
Thursday, August 7th at 6:30 pm

Australian Comedy/Drama.

In the heartfelt comedy, a twist of fate gives family matriarch June (Noni Hazlehurst) a reprieve from a debilitating illness. Much to their amazement, June re-enters the lives of her adult children, and learns that 'things haven't gone according to plan'. With limited time but plenty of pluck, she sets about trying to put everything, and everyone, back on track. When her meddling backfires, June sets out on a romantic journey of her own and discovers she needs help from the very people she was trying to rescue.

The Penguin Lessons (1 hr 47 min)
Thursday, August 14th at 6:30 pm

Inspired by the true story of a disillusioned Englishman who went to work in a school in Argentina in 1976. Expecting an easy ride, Tom discovers a divided nation and a class of unteachable students. However, after he rescues a penguin from an oil-slicked beach, his life is turned upside down. Starring Steve Coogan and Jonathan Pryce.

How to Train Your Dragon (2025, 2 hr 6 min)
Thursday, August 21st at 6:30 pm

This new release is a live-action remake of the 2010 animated film, itself loosely based on the 2003 novel by Cressida Cowell. On the rugged isle of Berk, where Vikings and dragons have been bitter enemies for generations, Hiccup stands apart. The inventive yet overlooked son of Chief Stoick the Vast (played by Gerard Butler), Hiccup defies centuries of tradition when he befriends Toothless, a feared Night Fury dragon. Their unlikely bond reveals the true nature of dragons, challenging the very foundations of Viking society. Rated PG in Ontario for some scenes of action and peril.

The Amateur (2 hr 2 min)
Thursday, August 28th at 6:30 pm

In this spy thriller, Charlie Heller (Rami Malek) is a brilliant but deeply introverted CIA decoder working out of Langley. When his wife is killed in a London terrorist attack and his supervisors refuse to act, Heller embarks on a dangerous trek, crisscrossing the globe to take down those responsible. Starring Rami Malek and Laurence Fishburne. Canadian Home Video Rating: PG for some Violence and Language.

Movie tickets are $2 each and are available one week in advance
